

2022 Sea turtle, Reef, Whales & Bird Research Internships

Have you ever thought about embarking on a research adventure abroad? Do you enjoy working with animals? The Science Exchange's 2-month research internships can strengthen your resume, give you a glimpse of a career as a field researcher, and offer life-changing experiences abroad!

Mexico and Costa Rica

Apply now

Friend on Facebook

Follow on Twitter

Contact: www.thescienceexchange.org or info@thescienceexchange.org

SEA TURTLES, REEFS, or BIRDS RESEARCH INTERNSHIPS IN MEXICO and COSTA RICA- SUMMER 2022

Benefits:

- Earn college credits
- Help save endangered species
- Do your own research project
- Publication opportunities
- Acquire important skills that you can use in your career!
- Give back to the community
- Learn Spanish! Learn to surf! Make new friends!

Requirements:

- Minimum 18 years old
- Ability to live and work in a hot and humid climate
- Teachable, flexible, open-minded with people from all backgrounds
- Intern pays for travel, room and board
- 15-page scientific paper and presentation due at end of project

Apply at: www.thescienceexchange.org or contact: info@thescienceexchange.org

